ABSTRACT

This study was about "Al-Tabarani Syntactic Control for the Quraanic Readings: Analytical and Original Study". The topic and due to its nature was divided into: foreword, introduction, three chapters and closure. In the foreword I justified the reasons behind choosing this topic, its importance, its goal and the methodology. I also introduced in brief Al-Tabareni's "Al-Tafseer Al-Kabeer" and his method in Tafseer. I also talked in the foreword about the references used in the study.

In the introduction I talked about the "Quraanic Readings" and its most famous readers. Then I talked about Al-Tabarabi: his name, ancestry, growth, traveling, his Sheiks (teachers), his students, his doctrine, his books and then his death.

The first chapter in this study was dedicated to explain Al-Tabarani's method in presenting the Quraanic readings, how to ascribe and how to claim. This chapter was divided into three quests. In the first one, I talked about the methods that Al-Tabarani used in presenting the Quraanic Readings based on recurrence and irregularity. While in the second quest I talked about the methods that Al-Tabarani used to ascribe the correct readings which were nine. In the third chapter I studied how to claim for and control the readings through audio transmission and the reasonable analogy.
